

NATIONAL DAY FOR TRUTH AND RECONCILIATION

WHEREAS the Truth and Reconciliation Commission released its final report on June 2, 2015, which included 94 Calls to Action to redress the legacy of residential schools and advance the process of Canadian reconciliation;

AND WHEREAS the recent discoveries of remains and unmarked graves across Canada have led to increased calls for all levels of government to address the recommendations in the TRC's Calls to Action;

AND WHEREAS all Canadians and all orders of government have a role to play in reconciliation;

AND WHEREAS Recommendation #80 of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission called upon the federal government, in collaboration with Aboriginal peoples, to establish, as a statutory holiday, a National Day for Truth and Reconciliation to ensure that public commemoration of the history and legacy of residential schools remains a vital component of the reconciliation process;

AND WHEREAS the Federal Government has announced September 30th, 2021, as the first National Day for Truth and Reconciliation (National Orange Shirt Day) and a statutory holiday;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT I, Nancy Dicks, Mayor of the Town of New Glasgow, of behalf of Council, does hereby proclaim September 30th, 2021, as the National Day for Truth and Reconciliation (National Orange Shirt Day) in the Town of New Glasgow. We will observe the day to reflect and honour the survivors of residential schools, their families, and communities, ensuring they are never forgotten.
