

Canada Day July 1, 2025

WHEREAS, Canada Day, celebrated annually on July 1st, marks the anniversary of the confederation of our nation, and provides an opportunity for all Canadians to come together in a spirit of unity, pride, and gratitude; and

WHEREAS, this year, the Town of New Glasgow has the distinct honour of celebrating its 150th Anniversary, recognizing a century and a half of rich history, community growth, and the contributions of generations of residents who have shaped our vibrant town; and

WHEREAS, Canada Day is a time to reflect on the freedoms we enjoy, the values we share, and the diverse cultures that strengthen our community and country; and

WHEREAS, the Town of New Glasgow acknowledges the land on which we live and celebrate as the ancestral and unceded territory of the Mi'kmaq people, and we remain committed to truth, reconciliation, and building meaningful relationships with Indigenous communities; and

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT, I, Mayor Nancy Dicks, of the Town of New Glasgow, do hereby proclaim July 1st, 2025, as Canada Day in the Town of New Glasgow, and encourage all citizens to participate in the many celebrations taking place throughout our Town, especially as we celebrate this day alongside New Glasgow's 150th Anniversary. Let us come together in celebration, reflection, and community spirit.
