

PROCLAMATION
National Human Trafficking Awareness Day
February 22, 2026

WHEREAS, Human Trafficking Awareness Day is observed annually on February 22 to raise awareness and inspire action to end human trafficking and protect the dignity, freedom, and rights of all people; and

WHEREAS, human trafficking is a global issue recognized by the United Nations, affecting communities around the world and requiring collective awareness, education, and leadership to address; and

WHEREAS, through education, awareness, and collaboration, communities can play a meaningful role in preventing exploitation, supporting survivors, and promoting safe, inclusive, and informed environments; and

WHEREAS, Human Trafficking Awareness Day serves as an opportunity to reaffirm a shared commitment to compassion, justice, and the protection of human rights, while encouraging individuals and organizations to work together toward positive change.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT, I, Mayor Nancy Dicks of the Town of New Glasgow, do hereby proclaim February 22, 2026, as “Human Trafficking Awareness Day” in New Glasgow.

Mayor Nancy Dicks
